Dear Mr. Maxwell: This amendment is in response to your request for additional information dated Dec. 26, 2001. In your letter you asked us to clarify whether we charge the usual and/or normal charge for goods and services. Our largest offset to operating expense comes from payroll reimbursements. The committees are charged the gross pay for their employees plus the employer taxes, which would be the normal charge for an employer. Also, any other services or goods provided to federal candidates are charged at the rate we or anyone else would pay. Your letter also brought to our attention that some of the YTD totals for individual donations were not correct. Please be advised that we have corrected those totals. The schedule H2 should now appear. We still have the issue with duplicate events which are the same (i.e. Circle Club01 and Circle Club2001) This Text box is limited in size , so we are going to answer the rest of your questions using the memo text for specific entries. If you have questions please feel free to call us at (317) 231-7100.

General transfer to non-federal account. At the time our state account balance was low. No disbursements on schedule 22 were made in connection with supporting a specifically identified federal candidate.

Your letter asked about memo entries for credit card disbursements. We have double checked all the credit card disbursements and have itemized all vendor payments which exceed $200 in a year.
