Dear Dr. Spottswood:

Thank you for your generous contribution to the Democratic Party of Wisconsin. We greatly appreciate your continued support. Unfortunately, in my desire to quickly and responsibly deposit your $1,000 cash contribution into the proper Party account, I failed to note that the State Party is barred by federal election law to accept cash contributions exceeding $100. I deeply apologize for this inconvenience.

After consulting with the Federal Elections Commission, we are returning your cash contribution to you (via the enclosed check) so that we may properly comply with FEC rules and regulations.

Again, we greatly appreciate your continued support. To fully comply with the law, your contribution can be made via a check or money order.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Larry J. Martin
Executive Director
