Reference: July Quarterly Report (04/01/00 – 06/30/00)

Dear Ms. Wilkens:

This letter is in response to the Commission's inquiry letter dated 09/20/00. An itemization of our responses follows:

- All expenditures made for "Telemarketing", "Hyde Event", "Dole Event Food", and "Media Buy" on Schedules B and H4 were for general party fundraising. None of these expenditures were made on behalf of specifically identified federal candidates. The committee properly reported these expenses on Schedules B and H4.

- The expenditure described as "Event Expenses" has been clarified on the enclosed amended report.

- Per Commission Regulations, this committee uses the following procedures for requesting occupation and employer information.

  1. First, all of our original solicitations include a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information and inform the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information.

  2. Second, if the information is not provided, the committee mails one letter to the contributor clearly asking for the missing information without soliciting a contribution. This letter typically is mailed within 7-10 days of receipt of the contribution. In this letter, the committee again informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. In addition, the committee includes a pre-addressed, postage-paid post card for the contributor's use.

3. Third, the committee reports the collected information on either an amended memo Schedule A or on an amended report.

* The treasurer of the committee has signed the enclosed amended report.

I trust that these explanations and the enclosed amended report satisfactorily answer the Commission's inquiries. If you have further questions or require more information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Luella Schmidt
