Subject: Re: Address change

Good morning,

In order to report a change in a registered political committee's registration information (such as the mailing address), an amended Statement of Organization (FEC Form 1) must be submitted. To amend an electronically filed Form 1, a new electronic Form 1 must be filled out in its entirety and submitted to the FEC. This new document will act as an amendment by replacing the existing file in the FEC's database.

The software you use to generate your PAC's FEC Form 3X should also have the capability to generate FEC Form 1. If you use FECFile, you may wish to contact staff in the FEC's Electronic Filing Office for assistance in transitioning to the electronic filing format, as well as for any technical questions regarding the Commission's filing software, uploading reports, etc. You may reach this office, toll-free, 1-800-424-9530 (press #4, when prompted), or locally at 202-694-1642. If you software other than FECFile, please contact your software vendor's technical support for further assistance.

I hope you find this information helpful.

Sincerely,
Liz Kurland
Deputy Assistant Staff Director
FEC Information Division
