This notice is being filed in response to the December 8, 2004 letter from the Federal Election Commission. The American College of Cardiology disclosed on its 2004 12 Day Pre-General Report an independent expenditure that it made on October 13, 2004. It was our understanding at the time the independent expenditure was made that the FEC's regulations did not require additional disclosure since the expenditure was made more than 20 days before the general election. It has since come to our attention that for such expenditures made more than 20 days before an election, a 48-hour notice is now required.
