Dear Federal Elections Commission Officer:

I am writing in response to your letters regarding several questions. The first letter referenced the March Monthly Report for 1997. The first question dealt with a $1000 refund on line 16. There was a computer problem and the identity came out as a comma with no name. The report has been amended and is attached. You also advised that we have been using the wrong ID number. Please note in this amendment the number has been corrected and will be reflected in all future reports. The last item on the list concerned our computer printed FEC reports themselves. I have been assured that the format we are using has been approved by the FEC and several other PACs are using the same format. I will reference our computer form supplier as Capitol Hill Software, Inc (301) 459-2590. We have been using this form since 1996. Please review amendments and notify if the form is not approved.

The second letter referenced the May Monthly Report for 1997. It states that we exceeded a contribution by $1000 to the committee Voinovich for Senate. The amount was incorrectly disclosed as a contribution toward the general, when in fact it was meant for the primary. Please note the enclosed amended report reflecting this change in designation.

The third letter referenced the June Monthly Report for 1997. You have asked about the line 11(c) which discloses a $200 contribution from a federal political committee. I called the reports analyst to have him walk me through the steps for this transaction. The name of the committee is the Mary Margaret Oliver Campaign who accidentally refunded our PAC $200. When we realized this was by accident we immediately refunded the $200 to their PAC. The computer didn't print the name so it has now been manually added it to the amended report which is attached.

One additional amendment which is enclosed references our August Monthly Report for 1997. Please note a disbursement entry incorrectly marked Don Young as a state candidate, when in fact he is a federal candidate. This correction is reflected in the amendment and will be reflected in the totals through the end of the year.

Please feel free to call me at (202) 457-6585 if you have any questions regarding the amended reports.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Reicherts
