Dear Mr. Krebbs:

Enclosed please find amended Federal Election Commission ("FEC") Repors of Receipts and Disbursements for the years 1997-2000 for the above referenced PAC. I have recently been appointed Treasurer of the National Marine Manufacturers Association Political Action Committee. When preparing our tax return it became evident that our PAC bank account balances did not match the reports we had been providing the Federal Election Commission. Upon review it became evident that the problem began in 1997. The enclosed reports correct various errors made between 1997 and 2000. The 2001 reports also need to be amended for opening and closing balances but they will be filed electronically as that is the original method used to submit to the Federal Election Commission.

The major findings, in summary:

- 1997 - a $551 discrepancy was found in the amount of unitemized receipts reported in the July 31 Mid-Year report
- 1998 – approximately $9,000 recorded as receipts were never deposited into the PAC bank account and there are no check copies verifying receipt. Additionally, the amounts of four disbursements were incorrect totaling an additional $1,000 in disbursements
- 1999-no variances-amended returns simply have changed opening and closing balances related to prior year errors
- 2000-one disbursement recorded was never sent to the campaign listed-check not cashed
- 2001 and 2002 April 15 report - return not enclosed but when you receive electronically-only opening and closing balances have changed to reflect prior year errors

The individuals working as Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer when these errors were made are no longer employed by the National Marine Manufacturers Association. We do not expect any problems like this in the future. If you have any questions on these returns please contact the Vice President of Finance for the National Marine Manufacturers Association at 312.946.6232.

Sincerely,

Monita Fontaine, Esq.
Treasurer
National Marine Manufacturers Association PAC
