RE: Republican Party of Virginia
ID No. C00001305
April Quarterly Report (1/1/00 – 3/31/00)

Gentlemen:

This is in response to your request dated June 21 for the above-referenced report. Please note that we recently filed an amendment which should address some of the concerns raised by your review.

A corrected ballot composition ratio for allocation of generic voter drive expenses has been filed. Also, we are enclosing an amended schedule H4 to clarify the certain descriptions mentioned in your letter.

The Schedule H4 that listed a fundraising expense has been amended to properly reflect that it was an administrative expense. As a result, we believe that no Schedule H2 is required and the event year-to-date amounts are correct. (We simply checked the "fundraising" box by mistake.)

Please be advised that the payments received from federal candidate committees were at the usual and normal charge for the goods and services provided. The usual and normal charges are determined by applying a fixed rate to the number of voters included in the voter list request, and the fixed rate is the same for all candidates and committees, federal and non-federal.

An amendment for Schedule A, Line 17 is enclosed to clarify that the receipt was for a voter list, and not a contribution. Therefore, we believe the activity properly belongs on Line 17 and not Line 11(c).

Very truly yours,
REPUBLICAN PARTY OF VIRGINIA

Anne P. Petera
