FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

RECEIVED
DEC 13 1993
NPGA ACCTNG. DEPT.

December 1993

Dear Treasurer:

New regulations, at 11 CFR 102.3 and 110.2, effective January 1, 1994, require political committees to notify the Commission, by filing FEC Form 1M, that they have achieved multicandidate status. In addition, committees must give notice of this status to recipient candidates and committees when they make a contribution. The purpose of this letter is to advise you of these new regulations and to explain how they pertain to your committee.

Our records show that your political committee has already satisfied the requirements for multicandidate status. Therefore, you need not file FEC Form 1M. However, beginning with your next report, you must check box three (3) on FEC Form 3X, to indicate that your committee is a multicandidate committee. This should be done each time you file Form 3X. Your committee may also wish to note on the form that it satisfied the criteria of multicandidate status prior to January 1, 1994.

In addition, when you make contributions, your committee must inform all recipient candidate committees, in writing, that it has qualified as a multicandidate committee. You may have this information preprinted, typed or handwritten on checks or stationery or included in the body of a letter accompanying a check.

The Federal Register Notice containing the revised regulations has been provided for your convenience. If you have any questions regarding these rules or the additional requirements of your committee, please contact the Information Division at 1-800-424-9530 or 202-219-3420.

Sincerely,

Bobby Werfel
