This amendment is in response to the FEC's letter of March 31 2004. The ASDC is a political party committee that is an association of the fifty state party committees as well as the party committees of several American territories. The committee's funds consist of transfers from affiliated party committees as wel as contributions that are subject to the prohibitions and limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. The ASDC currently maintains only two full-time employees and utilizes office space currently occupied by the Democratic National Committee an affiliated national party committee. Accordingly the ASDC's operating expenses are of a limited nature. Needless to say all operating expenses of the ASDC are paid for with federal funds. Furthermore any expenses that may be incurred by the DNC including office rent and supplies on behalf of ASDC are also paid for with federal funds. If you have any questions please contact Andrew Goldberg at 202-321-1877.
