Re: Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP PAC, Identification Number C00344754
July Quarterly Report (4/1/02-6/30/02)

Dear Chris:

This is in response to you letter dated December 6, 2002, regarding an excessive contribution. An amended report for the period was filed yesterday, filing ID FEC-69879.

Attached is a copy of the refund check for $500.00 we received from The Senator John Warner Committee, dated 8/23/2002. This check was endorsed by us to "The Victory Fund", mailed and cashed by the Republican Party of Virginia, Inc., copy attached. A letter from Senator John Warner's is also attached for your information.

Please feel free to contact me if you need additional information

Sincerely,

Margaret Ahman

Dear Friends:

Thank you for your generous contribution to Senator John Warner's campaign. You have been a strong and loyal supporter for many years and we are grateful.

As you know, federal election law limits individual contributions to $1,000.00 per election cycle, i.e. $1,000.00 for the primary cycle and another $1,000.00 for the general cycle. Because you have already contributed $1,000 for the primary cycle, the law limits additional contributions to $1,000 for the general cycle.

I am returning your most recent contribution since it exceeds your remaining maximum contribution limit. You have already contributed $1000 the primary cycle and $1000 to the general cycle.

Senator Warner is working very closely with the Victory 2002 program. This program will help Senator Warner and out other Republican candidates endure success in November. Victory 2002 can take corporate contributions in addition to personal contributions. Should you wish, these funds could be contributed to this account by endorsing the refund check to "The Victory 2002", or by writing a new check for the refund amount and mailing this check in the enclosed envelope to:

1805 Monument Avenue
Suite 203
Richmond, VA 23220

If you have any questions or need any additional information please do not hesitate to call the campaign office at 804-344-8081.

Thank you for your assistance in complying with these federal election law requirements and for your generous support.

Sincerely,

Abigail Farris
