Reference: April Quarterly Report (3/2/06-3/31/06)

Dear Mr. Shook:

In response to your letter of June 22, 2006, I am offering the following explanations regarding prohibited contributions and excessive contributions.

1. Prohibited Contributions
   a. You listed three contributors that were considered prohibited contributors. Upon checking with the Secretary of States website, the following contributors were listed as corporations (Chicago Metro Lee Association, Chinese American Association of Greater Chicago, Hunt eMedia and Management, Landmark Center & Luk's Building, Lim Family Association, Ma's Family Association of Chiago, North Lawndale Employment Network, and Park Boulevard Management Company) and refund check have been sent as of June 30, 2006. (Attachment A)
   b. These refunds will be reflected in the October Quarterly report on Schedule B Line 20(a) However, Chinese Fresh Chicken and Hoy On Association were not listed as corporations and therefore no refund checks were generated.
2. Excessive Contributions
   a. The contributions of Dr. John D. Morrison and Jeffrey A. Wellek were incorrectly stated as $2,006.00. The year 2006 was mistakenly placed in the wrong field and ended up being transposed as currency. The amounts should have been for Dr. John D. Morrison, $75.00 and for Jeffrey A. Wellek. $500.00. The correction will be made on an amended report.
   b. An explanation is shown in the memo section of the report.
   c. A letter from the UAW V-CAP shows the correction designation of their contribution. (Attachment B)
