This amendment is being filed in response to the letter from the FEC dated December 1, 2004. The original report listed a contribution in the amount of $10,000 from John Murnane. Mr. Murnane actually contributed $5,000 to the PAC. The other $5,000 was contributed by Theresa Murnane. The amendment corrects the administrative error made in originally reporting the contribution. A number of transactions listed on Schedule B were mistakenly reported as being for the 2004 Primary election. These disbursements were designated for the 2004 General election and this amendment corrects the reporting error. The Susan B Anthony Campaign Fund paid for a list to be used in a mailing to its members. Payment did not occur after the list was used by the Fund, but was made at the time the number of names on the list and the cost of the list became available to the Fund. Payment prior to this date was not possible since the contents of the list and the cost was not known. The amendment discloses certain transactions that were inadvertently omitted on the original report. Due to a technical problem, certain disbursements designated as memo entries were not itemized on the original report. These were earmarked contributions that were made payable to individual candidates and forwarded to the campaign committees in the form of the contributor's original check. While these contributions were itemized on Schedule A, they did not appear on Schedule B. This amendment discloses these contributions on Schedule B. In addition, corresponding receipts for earmarked disbursements that were inadvertently omitted from the original report are included in the amended report. Other earmarked disbursements appear on the following month's report in those instances in which the earmarked contribution was received by the Committee with less than 10 days remaining in the reporting period.
