Reference: October Monthly Report (9/1/00-9/30/00)

Dear Mr. de Groh:

This letter is in response to your request for additional information dated March 21, 2001.

In regards to the first paragraph, please note that AMERIPAC was using FECFile3 at the time of the October Monthly filing. The aggregate year-to-date information is automatically generated by the software and cannot be modified by the user. Unfortunately, the software does not calculate the aggregate year-to-date correctly when the entries are Memo entries. Therefore, the report cannot be changed to correct the aggregate year-to-dates.

Included with this letter is an amendment on diskette to this report which includes the full names of the political committees reported on Schedules A and B.

AMERIPAC The Fund for a Greater America has reported all of its administrative expenses for the 2000 election cycle. The committee has no paid staff and maintains no separate office. The administrative activities of the committee, such as maintaining the bank account and preparing the FEC reports, have been conducted by volunteers. Any administrative expenditures incurred by the committee have been reported (e.g. legal expenses and printing charges).

Your comments regarding the improperly itemized earmarked contributions on Schedule B have been noted for future reports.

I hope this information answers your inquiry. If you need further information, I can be reached at (301) 493-6928.

Sincerely,

Janica Kyriacopoulos
