This letter is in response to the recommendation of our analyst to explain the circumstances of the amount listed on schedule B page 3 and listed on line 29.

Earlier in the year there was a notice that all mass mailings including contributions for federal and non federal accounts must deposit 50% into the federal account. Upon consultation with our former FEC analyst I was informed that this was the case and that all contributions would necessarily need to meet federal contribution requirements. In response to this I deposited all the proceeds from our mass mailing sent July 5, 2005 into our federal account and transferred the non federal amount into our non federal account (50% or $210.00). The maximum amount contributed by any individual was $50.00 and all were individual contributions.

Our present analyst informed me that I must have separate checks for our non federal account and only checks for federal would be listed on the report. This will be done from now on.

Thank you.

Sincerly,

Ronald L. Britton, Treasurer
