ETEXT ATTACHMENT

03/18/2004 18 : 40

In response to your letter questioning whether all administrative and overhead costs had been included in the YE 2003 report, the answer is yes. There is no office rent for the committee, as all activities were either conducted from the (now former) administrator's home, by a volunteer working from her own home or by contractors whose fee included consideration for use of their own facilities.