Dear Mr. Evans:

For several years now, the Future Leaders PAC has been virtually inactive. At the beginning of this year it once again began receiving and making contributions. As a result, the PAC has retained the firm of Williams & Jensen to administer it's account. The firm is also the custodian of the PAC's records. As such, the fees the PAC will pay the firm will include what the PAC would otherwise pay for rent, phones, salaries, office equipment, supplies, utilities and most, if not all, other administrative-type expenses to which your letter refers.

Also, please note the attached amendment filed with the Commission on February 18 of this year which indicates that I am serving as treasurer. Your letter was addressed to Mr. Edward Slevin, the PAC's former treasurer.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Barbara Bonfiglio
