RE: Letter to Ed Legg, Treasurer, Participation 2000, Inc.

Dear Mr. Averett:

Participation 2000 is in receipt of your letter of March 28, 2001 with regards to our 2000 Pre-Primary Report. In your letter you inquire about the following items from this report:

1) You inquire as to the reason that Participation 2000 discloses a negative closing cash balance in its report.

- Please note that this negative cash balance merely reflects a temporary negative book balance. The committee's accounts were not, in fact, overdrawn at that time, and the committee disclosed a positive ending cash balance on its Pre-General Report.

2) You request clarification of the offices sought for contributions disclosed on Line 23.

- Please note that all references on Schedule B, Line 23 should be interpreted as follows:

  -Any reference to a state and district number (e.g. PA-23) refers to a candidate for the United States House of Representatives.
  -Any reference to a state and SEN (e.g. PA-SEN) refers to a candidate for the United States Senate.

PARTICIPATION 2000 contributions are not tax-deductible.

3) You state that certain payments disclosed on Line 23 appear to have been designated for the wrong election.

- Any contribution that discloses a contribution that falls outside of the primary or general election period was a typographical error. Enclosed please find amended Schedules B that correct these errors.

4) You state that Schedule H3 discloses transfers that appear to be outside of the 70 day window permitted for allocation transfers.

- Please note that the amount transferred for allocable expenses during the pre-primary reporting period reflects, in large part, transfers for expenditures that were made during the prior reporting period, which covered through July 2000. The committee has reviewed its records and is unable to identify any transfers that occurred outside the 70-day window. If you have any specific information that would indicate that the committee did not make transfers within the prescribed window, please provide the committee with specific information regarding any such transfers so that it may research this issue further.

If you have any further questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Susan A. Markham

Assistant Treasurer
