Dear Ms. Manzano:

This is in reply to your letter dated January 7, 1998. The Progressive Politics Network has no office, no staff, and no telephone. Strictly as a volunteer, in addition to being the Treasurer of the committee, I perform all of the administrative tasks necessary to deal with its very limited activity. In this regard, I use a printer, copier, computer, and office supplies purchased by the committee in prior years. The committee does pay for any current operating or administrative costs, such as postage, all of which have been either fully itemized in the referenced report, or did not meet the itemization threshold of $200. Please be assured that no other organization is paying these expenses, nor have we incurred any debts.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

Richard S. Kahn
