RE: 12 day Pre-General Report
Dear Sir:

Per our telephone conversations and with regard to your requests for information, we hereby respond.

I thought I had responded to all of your requests, but since you sent four different requests on four different dates in four different envelopes, one slipped through the cracks.

1. In the above referenced report, you requested clarification regarding our administrative expenses. The Committee did not in 1997 or 1998 maintain any office, nor did it have any paid staff. The only administrative expenses which were allocated were bank service charges which were specifically charged by the bank solely to the Federal Account.

2. With regard to the October Report and the post election report you requested further information regarding the GOTV activities. These expenditures were exempt expenditures because they were sample ballot materials and absentee ballot registration information mailed to absentee voters.

3. With regard to the Chesapeake Publishing Debt maybe I didn't fill out the form properly, but the Chesapeake Publishing Debt was incurred during the period from October 1, 1998 to October 15, 1998 and remained unpaid at the end of the period (Schedule D- Columns 3 and 5), but was paid and shown on the next report (30 day Post-Election Report, Schedule B).

I think I have responded to all of your requests, if I am mistaken, please do me the favor of calling me instead of writing threatening letters.

Very truly yours,

John F. Rodgers
