This amendment is in response to the Commission's letter dated May 19, 2006. 1. The contributions received from non-registered organizations were made from federal permissible funds. 2. Schedule A supporting Line 15 discloses payments from both registered and unregistered committees for access to an online voter file system and the sale of voter file data. The committee established the usual and normal charge by taking three factors into account: Total cost of voter file system to the committee, total amount of data being accessed by the receiving committee, and the price being charged by venders within the state for comparable data. 3. The receipt from CenturyTel on Line 15 was for office costs. The organization was charged the usual and normal charged based on the percentage of supplies and office space utilized during that period. 5. The committee has switched to monthly filing. 6. The voided checks on Schedule B were primarily for two types of transaction: Transfers to affiliated committees, these voids are not in-kinds, and Paid canvassers. The canvassers chose to donate their time and thus did not cash their checks. No other transaction constituted an in-kind contribution, with the exception of the reimbursement to Carlton Davis. This transaction has now been in-kinded. 7. The committee mistakenly did not account for the federal portion of the voided H4 transactions. The committee will take steps immediately to transfer the non federal portion of these transactions back into the non federal account. 8. The federal portions of the misallocated transactions have been moved to line 21(b) and reference the corresponding H4 memos. 9. All of the Memo Entries for the mis-payment of salaries on Line 30(b) have been marked to reference the transfer of the federal portion of funds. FEC Transaction ID 29-01-04116-D6147 10. The transfers to our non federal committee, appearing on Line 29, were for cash-flow purposes and did not go to pay for federal activity. 11. All of the Memo Entries for the mis-payment of salaries on Line 21(a) have been marked to reference the transfer of the federal portion of funds. FEC Transaction ID 29-01-04116-D6147 12. The entities of The NEA Fund and IUPAT Member & Family Fundraising PC Account have been more clearly identified.
