Amendment filed in response to FEC letter dated October 6, 2004. Safari Club International Political Action Committee uses best efforts when obtaining detailed information including employer and occupation on all donors to the PAC. The original solicitation includes a clear request for Name, Address, Occupation and Employer. All solicitations include a statement noting that federal law requires this information. Letters along with a business reply envelope are sent within 30 days asking for additional information from donors who did not provide the information originally. No solicitation for additional donations is included in this letter. It states that federal law requires the disclosure of such information and asks for a reply. Efforts are made via telephone to obtain missing information on recent donations prior to all required filing dates.
