Dear Mr. Gibson:

We received your letter notifying our Pac of failure to file and that we were previously notified of the due date for this report. We never received a forms package to file for the first quarter. In the past, we have always received these packages and reports were then issued in a timely manner. Last year our Pac filed every six months. I was unaware of the change to a quarterly filing this year nor did I receive the notification of a report due.

Upon receipt of your letter, I was involved in an audit and preparation for a board meeting. As a result, I just recently was able to complete the FEC Form 3X. We are a small trade association with limited staff and it was the best I could due under the circumstances. We have a lobbyist in DC who solicits contributions and determines what candidates we will support. I prepare the FEC report based on her input as it was established since I was the controller of our association that I should also be the Treasurer on the Pac.

Please accept our sincere apologies for the late filing. In the future, rather than rely on the receipt of report mailings, I will refer to your website for report due dates. I'm not sure why we didn't get the report but it seems to me this has happened once before a few years ago.

Should you have any further questions, feel free to call me at 847-301-0001.

Sincerely,

Liz Fidoruk
