Response to questions raised concerning the Committee's Year End Report for the period December 11, 2001 through December 31, 2001 (the '2001 Year End Report'). ¯Postage: The Committee was assessed the usual and customary charge for postage by the DCCC at the rate established by the United States Postal Service. The Committee did not receive a discount or pay less than the usual and normal charge for postage. Therefore, it did not receive an in-kind contribution from the DCCC. Administrative Expenses: The Committee does not have an office; it uses a post-office box for receiving mail. The Committee's reports disclose payments to an accountant who processes contributions, deposits funds, pays expenses, prepares FEC reports, and handles other day-to-day items for the Committee. The Committee hires fundraising consultants to help raise funds. The Committee also makes payments to a law firm to review legal matters that arise from time to time. In addition, some individuals volunteer their personal time to assist the Committee. On the 2001 Year End Report, the Committee's reported administrative expenses include postage, long distance telephone service, and legal fees. The Committee did not receive any in-kind contributions in the form of goods or services (other than volunteer activity) during the 2001 Year End Report period.
