This amendment is in response to the Commission's letter dated February 2, 2007. Schedules C, D, E, F, H3, H4, H5, H6, and L were previously omitted from the original report because of a software error. While the Detailed Summary Page showed totals for these schedules, they were not transmitted when the report was filed. This amendment contains complete Schedules and a corrected Detailed Summary Page that accounts for all contributions and disbursements initially omitted because of this software malfunction. Receipts from Benenson Strategy Group, Peter Hard Research Associates, and Predicted Lists, LLC were offsets for Voter File Purchases. They have been correctly reflected on Schedule A for Line 17 in this amendment. The excessive contribution from the DRIVE Committee has been moved to the non-federal account and shown as a debt to the non-federal account in this amendment. During the 2006 election cycle, the Committee established separate accounting methods for its receipts from National Party Committees, and none of these funds were used for exempt party activities. Payments for Exempt activities were not paid for with any funds from a national party committee or a non-federal account and met all qualifications of exempt activities. Payments for 'GOTV Stipend' and 'GOTV Worker' were for the Committee's generic election day activities. The payment for 'Postage' on Schedule B for Line 21b was for the Committee's administrative postage meter and was not a disbursement for public communications. Payments for 'Fundraising Consulting' and 'Fundraising Expense Reimbursement' were not made on behalf of any candidates for federal office.
