REFERENCE: Statement of Organization, received 1/31/02

Dear Mr. Krebs:

This letter is being sent in response to your March 6 letter, a copy of which is enclosed. I am also enclosing an amended and corrected organizational report making the changes set forth in your letter.

Our committee is considered as a Political Action Committee. Its formal membership includes 3 male and 3 female members of the Iowa Democratic State Central Committee who are elected every two years at District Conventions, plus representatives from each of the counties within the District who are elected by the county Democratic Central Committees. The number of representatives from each county is now set so that each County has at least three representatives, but larger counties have more. The Committee elects from its members a chair (who must be a State Central Committee Member) and a Vice-Chair, Secretary and Treasurer. We are not involved in any State of Iowa Political Races. The other four Congressional Districts in Iowa have similar committees. Both the District and the County Central Committees are affiliated with the Iowa Democratic Party, but all have separate treasuries.

If you have any questions regarding this response, please contact me. My office phone number is 319-233-6163 and my office fax is 319-233-6435.

Very truly yours,

Edward J. Gallagher, III
Treasurer, First District Congressional Democratic Committee (Iowa)

cc: Iowa Democratic Party
Jean Pardee, First District Chair
