Reference: year End Report (7/1/1999-12/31/1999)

Dear Mr. Gibson,

I apologize for the lateness in the response from our committee in regards to this issue. I have now received two letters from your office. The first one was mailed to the address of our former Treasurer and then was re-mailed to my address. Unfortunately, the second mailing of the first letter along with the last letter you sent on October 25 were both delivered to a neighbor of mine who just put them in my mailbox on Friday November 2nd. Thus, I am just being able to give to you the requested information. I was unable to find the original copy of the Detailed Summary Sheet that you are requesting however, I have found the rest of the report and I have enclosed a filled-out Detailed Summary Sheet for the end-of-the-year report for 1999.

Please advise if there is any thing else you will need to complete this report. My direct line at work is 252.931.5807 if you need to speak to me between 8am-5pm.

Also, please advise what form I need to fill out to change the name of the Treasurer for our committee. I received a sheet with all forms available from the FEC Faxline but I did not see a particular form for making Treasurer information changes. My husband was the Treasurer for this committee but now I am. The address stays the same but the name of the treasurer changes.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter. We want to make sure we do whatever is needed to have our records current with your office. Please do not hesitate to call me anytime for more information or clarification.

Sincerely,

Arielle Morris
Treasurer
Third District North Carolina Republican Party
