Dear Mr. Davis:

This letter is forwarded in response to your letter dated February 12, 1997 regarding a contribution made to the Kemp for Vice President Committee on October 15, 1996 in the amount of $5,000. We have determined that the Schedule B originally submitted mistakenly reflected the contribution as a disbursement for a general, rather than primary, election.

The Kemp for Vice President Committee was formed for the election of the Republican Vice Presidential candidate, which took place during the 1996 Republican National Convention. Because this election is considered a primary election, the contribution to the Committee should have been reported as a primary election disbursement.

A revised Schedule B is provided as an enclosure to this letter. We regret any confusion caused by this mistake. If there are additional questions regarding this matter, I may be reached at (202) 879-7710.

Sincerely,

Charles D. Brooks

Dear Mr. Josephson:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Schedule B discloses a contribution(s) towards the general election campaign of a Vice-Presidential candidate (pertinent portion attached). Please note that contributions to Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates are governed by specific regulations. Please refer to the following explanation of Presidential election financing, and then amend your report to clarify this contribution(s).

All Presidential primary elections held during an election year are considered one election for the purpose of the contribution limits. A multicandidate committee, therefore may give only $5,000 to a Presidential candidate's primary campaign, regardless of how many separate state Presidential primaries the candidate participates in. 11 CFR §§110.1(j)(1) and 110.2(i)(1)

In the general election, contributions to major party (Republican and Democratic) Presidential or Vice-Presidential campaigns are not permitted if the candidate receives public funds. (An exception: Political committees may contribute to a publicly funded Presidential or Vice-Presidential nominee's "compliance fund.") A compliance fund is solely for legal and accounting expenses incurred in complying with the election law. Gifts to compliance funds are considered contributions and are subject to usual per-candidate, per-election limits. 11 CFR §9003.3(a)

A written response or an amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 219-3580.

Sincerely,

Kenneth A. Davis, Jr.
