In response to your letter, please note that we have corrected several programming errors that led to your questions. The office sought for all candidates has been included. We had included that information and we have changed it to appear in the correct area. The contributions to candidates in Texas and New Mexico were for Primary Debt. We have amended these contributions to show this information. Schedule H3 has been amended to show the correct total as reported on the summary page. Expenditures for production are related to the production of generic committee communications and are not made on behalf of any specific candidate. The In-kind contributions have been amended by programming to show the full disclosure procedure as directed. Schedule D has been amended to show the debts to the vendors in question. Please contact me if you have any questions at 202-/479-7042.
