Each quarter we send a memo to reexplain 2 programs that we have that in the past have been questioned: First, Coin Program. We have several credit unions in the PAC that act as collecting agents to sell the coins to its members. We pay for the cost of the coins, and then the credit union forwards the gross sale to the PAC. Second, we have the Cookbook Program. This works the same way as the coins. The credit unions sell books to its members, and forward the gross receipts to the PAC, while the PAC pays the entire cost of the books sold.
