Petition for GOP Chairman Haley Barbour

Republican National Committee Headquarters
310 First Street, SE, Washington, D.C. 20003
(202) 863-8500

As a loyal Republican voter, I want you to know that I am truly disturbed by press reports that YOU are working with so-called moderate Republicans to abort the pro-life plank from our party platform.

As you know, our party has been an advocate for unborn children since the Supreme Court usurped power from the states and handed down its Constitutionally indefensible position in Roe v. Wade.

Furthermore, a majority of American voters oppose abortion on demand. So the winning strategy for the GOP is to remain the pro-life party. Indeed, pro-life voters made it possible for our party to win control of Congress in the last election for the first time in 40 long years.

More importantly, being the champion of innocent human life is the morally correct position to take. Like the lunch counter segregationists before them, today's pro-abortion lobby has drawn a line saying who has rights and who doesn't.

Well, I say that they DO NOT have the moral right to draw that line. Human life is sacred, and children are a gift from God.

If the pro-abortion "moderates" are successful in their quest to have the GOP abandon unborn children, they will drive pro-life voters from our party, split the Republican vote, and hand Bill Clinton a second term.

Mr. Chairman, for these reasons, please do all in your power to preserve our party's strong pro-life plank and keep the GOP winning elections as the champion of unborn children.

Respectfully,

Signed: _____
