In response to the Commission's first question in its letter dated Novmaber 18, 2005 the Committee advises the Commission that a Form H1 was not submitted with this report because the Committee elected to pay a percentage of the allocable costs from the federal account - 40%, which is higher than that which is the minimum required under the regulations. In response to the Commission's second question, the Committee advised the Commission (see Form 99 submission dated 4/22/05), the Committee originally opened a separate checking account to handle Levin funds, whereby individual checks were written to vendors from the Levin checking account for the Levin portion of an allowable payment. As previously described, the Levin account was closed and, based on guidance from the Commission during this first year of working with Levin funds, the Committee intends to draw payments upon which Levin Funds are permissible. In the proper allocation, from its respective state and federal accounts. If you have any questions, please contact Susan Arceneaux at 703 250 0496 or Chris Craig, FCRC General Counsel at 703 848 4700.
