PeacePAC Endorses:

Lynn Rivers of Michigan

Democrat—Open Seat ■ Endorsed for U.S. House of Representatives by PeacePAC

TALKING TO Lynn Rivers can be costly. This dynamic candidate makes you reach for your checkbook to insure that she takes a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives. With such a powerful presence, it is no wonder that she upset her two primary opponents in the August primary even though she was not the early favorite and was outspent.

At 37, Lynn Rivers has already had a lifetime of overcoming tremendous obstacles. Pregnant at age 18, Rivers married right after high school graduation and soon had a second child. She and her husband scrambled to raise their children while she worked her way through college and law school. It took her fifteen years but she made it. In 1984, while completing her undergraduate studies at the University of Michigan, Rivers won a seat on the Ann Arbor school board, later serving three terms as president of the board, the youngest ever elected.

In 1992, she earned her law degree and won a seat in the state legislature with a landslide victory. When Representative Bill Ford (D) announced his retirement after 30 years in office, Lynn Rivers recognized her opportunity to go to Washington to work on the issues she deeply cares about: education, child care, job training, and health care.

Lynn Rivers knows that bringing down the military budget in line with the post-Cold War era is the key to reducing the federal deficit and funding social programs. She says that, "Countries that threaten world peace today are considerably less able than was the former Soviet Union to invest in offensive weapons....We do not need to outspend them by 10 and 20 times in order to be able to respond in a crisis."

Her opponent in the general election is anti-choice John Schall, who worked in the Reagan and Bush administrations. A convinced conservative, he has a perfect score in the right-wing Michigan Family Forum voters guide. He is extremely well-funded.

Redistricting in 1992 has put some solidly Republican territory in this district. Rep. Ford spent $872,000 in 1992. Lynn Rivers must raise at least that amount to have the resources to get her message out to voters. To reach parts of her Ann Arbor base she must use the Detroit media market, the fourth most expensive in the country.

Lynn Rivers is an activist who does not shrink from political battles. PeacePAC needs her in Washington to push for cuts in military spending. Join our efforts to help Lynn win in November. Make your check out to "Rivers for Congress" and mail it to PeacePAC.

If you wish to contribute to any of these campaigns, please make out checks to the appropriate committees and mail to: PeacePAC, 110 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002. The committees listed above have authorized the mailing.

PeacePAC Endorses:

John C. Hottinger of Minnesota

Democrat—Open Seat ■ Endorsed for U.S. House of Representatives by PeacePAC

THE 1ST congressional district in Minnesota—tucked into the southeast corner of the state—is the home of the famous Mayo Clinic, founded in 1863 by an English-born physician to examine inductees into the Union Army. Today, the City of Rochester and the rest of this extremely diverse district are the location of a serious, high-stakes political war. The unexpected retirement of Democrat Rep. Tim Penny has set the stage for one of the most interesting and competitive House races in the country.

The resurgence of the radical right has dominated the political landscape in Minnesota this year. The state Republican Party has been taken over by a relatively small group of extremists. Meanwhile, state Senator John Hottinger, an attorney and member of the Democratic State Leadership, has been building a broad base of support. That preparation has already yielded Hottinger something Rep. Penny never got—he won't have a Democratic primary opponent.

For several years now, Rep. Penny has been a key leader on arms control issues in the U.S. House of Representatives. Penny earned a reputation as a deficit hawk who introduced "Pork-buster" bills. He went after projects like the Trident D-5 missile, the space station and the Superconducting Collider. John Hottinger has received strong support from Penny and plans to continue Penny's crusade for deficit reduction by working for deep military cuts. Hottinger was a nuclear freeze delegate to the Minnesota Caucuses in the 1980s. He has worked with the Union of Concerned Scientists and Amnesty International. Hottinger will be a worthy successor to Penny.

In 1990, John Hottinger became the first Democrat ever elected to the Minnesota Senate from his district, by a margin of less than 200 votes. In 1992, he won reelection in virtually the same district with an impressive 60 percent of the vote. In both of these victories he faced a better financed Republican opponent. In his first year in office, Senator Hottinger was named Freshman Legislator of the Year by Politics in Minnesota. He is pro-choice.

Hottinger's likely GOP opponent, State Rep. Gil Gutknecht, comes out of the radical right wing of the Minnesota Republican Party. Gutknecht is closely allied with the Christian Coalition. Neither Hottinger nor Gutknecht are well funded, making this race one of the most competitive and costly circuits in the country. In this swing district, with an equal number of Republicans and Democrats, there is the clearest battle of ideologies. If he raises enough money, Hottinger can win this race. Rep. Penny is out in the stumping for him. Let's do our share by making out checks payable to "Hottinger for Congress" and mailing them to PeacePAC.

Bart Stupak of Michigan

Democrat—Freshman—Member of Armed Services Committee ■ Endorsed for U.S. House of Representatives by PeacePAC

OH BABY, it's cold up there! "There" is the Upper Peninsula in Michigan, represented by first termer Bart Stupak. He is the first Democrat in 30 years to occupy Michigan's northernmost seat. It will get a lot colder on the House Armed Services Committee for PeacePAC if Stupak does not return to Congress in January. His predecessor, Rep. Bob Davis had a zero percent voting record and a closed door. Stupak is a strong ally. He has a door that is always open; he returns phone calls and he has an 85 percent voting record.

Stupak is a "Yooper," from Menominee on the Wisconsin border. He was

PeacePAC Endorses:

Jolene Unsoeld of Washington

Democrat—Incumbent ■ Endorsed for U.S. House of Representatives by PeacePAC

OUR FRIEND Jolene Unsoeld is in trouble. The race for the 3rd District in Washington state is becoming one of the nation's costliest congressional contests. It is also degenerating into one of the nastiest. The rival candidates have sharp philosophical differences on everything from military spending to abortion to taxes to timber policy. It is rare that PeacePAC asks twice for an incumbent in the same election cycle, but we cannot lose this valuable leader. So, we are asking you to help one more time.

Since 1993, Unsoeld's Republican challenger, multi-millionaire Tim Moyer, has put in an unprecedented $1.7 million (not a misprint) of his own money, saturating the airwaves with TV and radio ads. He has also pumped out mailings, one of which pairs mug shots of Unsoeld and Rep. Dan Rostenkowski (D–IL), the indicted former chairman of Ways and Means, with a caption, "These two cromes are destroying the U.S. Congress." This charge couldn't be further from the truth. Unsoeld is counter-attacking, but she has to raise the money to do it, while her opponent simply pulls out his checkbook.

The first real break Unsoeld has had in the face of the constant barrage of attacks came recently when it was discovered that Moyer was fined for tax evasion in 1989. He is now being forced to use some of his millions to defend himself.

For many years Jolene Unsoeld has played a very important role as one of the Pentagon's harshest, yet fairest, critics. She has organized fellow legislators to corral over 100 co-sponsors for legislation prohibiting the export of weapons or military assistance to regimes that are undemocratic, engage in acts of military aggression, or do not respect human rights. We can always count on Jolene Unsoeld to work the floor of the House on arms control legislation.

Jolene Unsoeld definitely needs our help. It would be a tragedy if she lost. There is a bumper sticker circulating in the district that reads

"Jolene: Make Him Spend it ALL." PeacePAC wants to make sure our ally Jolene Unsoeld, who will never have Moyer's resources, has enough money to keep this race competitive. Please write your check or your second check out to "Unsoeld Campaign" and mail it to PeacePAC.

a police officer in Escanaba, became a Michigan State Police Trooper in 1974, then got a law degree. When he was injured in the line of duty, he retired from the force. In 1988, he was elected to the Michigan House, then ran for the state Senate and lost. When Republican Bob Davis decided to retire in 1992 because of overdrafts at the House bank, Stupak won the seat with 54 percent of the vote.

The Republican nominee is Gil Ziegler, a multi-millionaire business man who spent over $170,000 of his own money to win the August primary. He has the resources to spend that much and more in the general election. Stupak has been targeted by the National Republican Campaign Committee which will be pouring thousands of dollars into the district to unseat him. The district's K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base was closed shortly after Stupak took office and hundreds of jobs were lost. While the decision to close the base was made before Stupak's term, its impact is only being felt now and may cost him some votes.

Stupak is out to beat the odds—no Democrat has ever been reelected to this seat. He needs the resources to reach the voters in the Upper Peninsula. PeacePAC has already raised $2,893.00 for his campaign. Let's make sure that Bart Stupak returns to Congress in January to continue his fine work on the Armed Services Committee. Please make your check out to "Stupak for Congress" and mail it to PeacePAC.

If you wish to contribute to any of these campaigns, please make out checks to the appropriate committees and mail to: PeacePAC, 110 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002. The committees listed above have authorized the mailing.

PeacePAC Endorses:

Dave Nagle of Iowa

Democrat—Challenger ■ Endorsed for U.S. House of Representatives by PeacePAC

DAVE YEPSEN of the Des Moines Sunday Register writes, "While the 1994 race for governor grabs headlines, Iowans also are seeing some of the most spirited contests for the state's five U.S. House seats in decades." These elections are going to be some of the closest in the last 50 years.

That is good news for PeacePAC's ally, former Rep. Dave Nagle, who is running to recapture the seat he lost in 1992 to Rep. Jim Nussle. Nussle is an anti-choice, moderate Republican who does not compare with Nagle in effectiveness.

Dave Nagle is a long-time advocate of arms control and the key architect of the Congressional coalition that passed an aid package for the former Soviet Union. Before hostilities began in the Gulf War, Dave Nagle worked around the clock with other peace activists trying to persuade members of Congress to continue economic sanctions on Iraq. He was also responsible for the first congressional ban on the development of a dangerous nuclear weapons delivery system, the depressed trajectory missile.

A poll conducted in early August showed Dave Nagle leading Jim Nussle 43 percent to 41 percent. It shows that this election will be a photo finish because Nussle has not been able to capitalize on his incumbency. Nagle's personal appeal and job performance score significantly higher than Nussle's. The only measure on which Nagle is lagging is campaign dollars.

Democrats have a rare opportunity to unseat this Republican incumbent if Nagle can raise the money to keep the race competitive. As GOP Chairman Haley Barbour says, "When the dice are hot, you bet the farm." PeacePAC has the ability to make a difference in this race. We have already raised $4,712.07 for Nagle, an authentic leader to return to the U.S. House of Representatives. Write your check to "Nagle for Congress" and mail it to PeacePAC.

If you wish to contribute to any of these campaigns, please make out checks to the appropriate committees and mail to PeacePAC, 110 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002. The committees listed above have authorized the mailing.
