Dear Ms. Benitz:

I am writing on behalf of the Texas Freedom Fund (the "Committee") in response to your question concerning administrative expenses. Nothing has changed in the operation of the Committee since we last responded to a similar question from you. Our answer to your question follows:

1. Administrative Expenses

The Committee properly disclosed payments for the limited number of administrative and operating expenses that it had during the January 1 2005 through March 31, 2005 reporting period. Any payments to a person aggregating in excess of $200 in a calendar year are disclosed by the Committee. The Committee does not have rented office space and it uses a post-office box for receiving mail. The Committee hired a fundraising consultant who provided fundraising services. The Committee's report discloses payments to a person who provides various accounting services, including: processing contributions, depositing funds, paying expenses, preparing FEC reports, and handling other day-to-day items for the Committee. The Report also discloses payments to a law firm to review legal matters that arise from time to time. In addition, some individuals volunteer their personal time to assist the Committee.

If you need any additional information regarding these matters, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jeff MacKinnon
Treasurer
