ATTN: Mr. Stephen Cohen, Reports Analyst

Dear Mr. Cohen:

RE: ID No. C00226472
ARPAC -- Mid-Year Report 1/1/93 -- 6/30/93

As requested by your December 1993 letter regarding ARPAC and the Commission's preliminary review of its 1993 Mid-Year report, itemized below are ARPAC's responses to your inquiries:

Line number total reflected on wrong line:
The ARPAC Mid-Year Report has been amended to reflect the disclosures on the proper lines and is enclosed for filing with the Commission.

No payment disclosure for administrative expenses:
The ARPAC has had very minimal activity over the past couple of years. Due to this limited activity, no reportable administrative expenses have been incurred nor paid by ARPAC. ARPAC has had no service fees on its bank account, no check charges and no supply expenses. The amount of expense for rent and utilities is so insignificant that no charge was made to ARPAC.

Expenses being paid by a connected organization:
No expenses are being paid on behalf of ARPAC by a connected organization.

Goods and Services Provided to Committee:
Due to ARPAC's minimal activity, the only services provided to ARPAC have been the preparation of the semi-annual and annual report to the Commission. Since the preparation of each of these reports only require about 15 minutes of time to prepare, no fees have been charged to prepare same.

When ARPAC becomes more active, any administrative expenses incurred will be reported to the Commission.

If you have any questions regarding these clarifications, please contact me at at (504) 336-5200.

Also, enclosed for filing with the Commission is ARPAC's 1993 Year-End Report.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

ARPAC
