Dear Pat,

It has come to my attention that the following contributions to Senator Burns' campaign have an error regarding my employer. I retired from The University of Montana in June 30, 2003. My employer is the Inland Northwest Space Alliance (INSA) and I am the CEO. All contributions after July 1, 2003 should reflect this.
Thanks for taking care of this matter.
Sincerely,

George Bailey

BEST EFFORTS: Our original solicitation includes a clear and conspicuous request for contributor information and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. If the information is not provided, we make one follow-up, stand-alone effort to obtain this information, regardless of whether the contribution was solicited or not. This effort occurs no later than 30 days after receipt of the contribution and is in the form of a written request. The follow-up request clearly asks for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution; informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for reporting such information; and is in the form of a postage-paid, pre-addressed postcard. Follow-up phone calls are also made to obtain the information. Upon receipt of the information, it is entered as contributor information update and is reported as a memo item for the reporting period during which the updated information is received.
