Re: Your December 18, 1996 Letters

Dear Ms. Reynolds:

Per our conversation, I have revised the reports. As we discussed, our committee has been paying joint expenditures out of our non-federal account and reimbursing our state account from the federal account. We had been under the impression that non-federal funds were never to be co-mingled with the federal account. We also were under the impression that Virginia wanted us to do it that way. We will, from now on, begin paying joint party building expendiures from the federal account and reimburse from the state account.

I am enclosing herewith, the amended October 15, 1996 report, the amended 12 day report, the 30 day post election report, and the January 31, 1997 report. As we discussed, I could not file an accurate and timely 30 day post election report because we received some in-kind contributions and contributors were slow in sending me their receipts

We apologize for the delay. Please see that the reports are properly filed.

If you have any questions, please contact me at the above address and telephone number.

Very truly yours,

John F. Rodgers
