Dear Mr. Gibson:

We are in receipt of the mailgram referencing the July Quarterly Report, dated 04/01/2000 through 04/30/2000. Since the creation of our PAC on March 22, 2000, we have been filing monthly reports with the Commission. We assume that the mailgram requests action on the May Monthly Report covering the above mentioned reporting dates.

We have made every attempt to file timely with the Commission and feel sure that the May Monthly Report was filed on ~~May 15th~~. However to make sure we are in compliance with Commission regulations, enclosed is a signed copy of the May Monthly Report and a photocopy of our record indicating the messenger delivered the report prior to the May 20, 2000 deadline. Please note that the report was signed by Nancy Myers who was the current treasurer at that time.

As you can see by the record of reporting on the Commission website, all other reports have been timely filed. We were also under the impression that the May Monthly Report was filed in a timely fashion. BIO PAC in no way intended to ignore the laws governing the filing of PAC disclosure reports, especially in light of the new Administrative Fines Program. We are in the process of moving toward electronic filing which should help us to insure that reports are received into the Commission's database correctly.
