RE: Mike Honda for Congress
FEC ID C00351379

Dear Ms. Sugarman:

This letter and the enclosed amended report for Mike Honda for Congress are sent in response to your letter dated December 27, 2000, which we received here on January 4, 2000. We enclose an amended July 15 Quarterly Report for the period 7/1 through 9/30/2000.

The report has been amended to provide additional information or further clarification including the following areas:

- Memo entries on earmarked contributions, including the total amount of earmarked contributions received from a conduit.
- Additional occupation and employer information as received.
- More complete Political Action Committee contributor names as confirmed via the Federal Election Commission website.
- Complete addresses of vendors on Schedule B.

Paid for and authorized by Mike Honda for Congress, FEC ID C00351379
Not printed or mailed at public expense; labor donated.

- More complete descriptions of disbursements on Schedule B.

- Memo entries on disbursements to credit card companies and on reimbursements to individuals as needed.

- We had reported itemized contributions from a few individuals who appeared to have given less than $200.00 year to date. These individuals actually were properly itemizable because their year to date total contributions were in excess of $200.00. Through a computer error, the YTD totals were not correctly shown in these instances. We have corrected this error.

In regard to identification of individual contributors, we believe that the Committee has reported the name and address of each of its contributors, and that the only deficits are in the occupation/employer area. The Committee does use best efforts to obtain this information. Our procedures include:

- All solicitations include a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information, and inform the potential contributor of the requirements of federal law in regard to seeking and reporting such information.

- Campaign and fundraising staff are made aware of the requirements, and asked to make sure that anyone delivering a check in person or at an event correctly fills out the needed identification information, including occupation and employer. I work with campaign and fundraising staff in order to obtain as much of this information as possible and to be sure that the requirements are understood and complied with.

- At least one followup communication is made in writing in an effort to obtain needed information. This is made without resolicitation, clearly asks for the information, and informs contributor of the requirements of federal law. These are routinely and invariably sent out within 30 days of the contribution's receipt. In addition, as long as we don't have the information, we continue to send further letters to those contributors where we don't have occupation and employer. In every case, we send a second written followup requesting this information, and in many cases, a three or four written requests have been made.

- Names of contributors where occupation and employer information is lacking are regularly circulated to the campaign and fundraising staff, who are requested to supply the information if known to them.

- Although not required by law, in some cases where we have a phone number, at least one and sometimes more than one phone call is placed to persons with missing information, seeking the information.

- A check is made of all records of the Committee in order to determine if this information is in our possession due to earlier contributions. In addition, the report preparers check other available data in an effort to ascertain this information.

- Amended reports are filed on or before the next regularly scheduled reporting date for the purpose of reporting all new identification information received since the last report.

We believe that these procedures equal or exceed what is required in order to demonstrate "best efforts" in accordance with the Commission's rules. We can assure you that we have made every effort to obtain and report this information, and that, in the vast majority of cases, we have provided all required information. In a campaign of this magnitude and intensity, it is almost inevitable that there will be a few pieces of information that will either be received late or which we will not be able to ascertain -- but it has not been and will not be for lack of trying.

You had also asked about contributions received after the Primary Election but designated for the Primary Election. In this regard, such contributions were accepted only in amounts equal to or less than the net debt outstanding from the primary. The Committee showed a debt of $188,668.64 in its report filed April 15, 2000 and covering the period through March 31, 2000, and I believe all of the debt shown on that report was for the primary. Against this, the Committee estimates that it has received approximately $83,000 worth of post-primary contributions that were designated for and attributed to the primary. Accordingly, we believe that the Committee's acceptance of these contributions is proper, and that no refunds or requests for redesignation are necessary.

As you pointed out, the original report for this period contained some references to "Reimbursement -- Petty Cash". These references were an incorrect shorthand. In each case, what this meant was that a check was issued to the person shown as the recipient in reimbursement of already spent money. Thus, the reimbursement was direct to the individual in regard to these small day-to-day expenses. The amended report now shows a memo entry for any expense reimbursement where the ultimate vendor received more than an aggregate of $200.00.

We have tried to get this information to you as soon as possible. As you know, we had experienced problems and tardiness with our software provider, Aristotle, in providing updates to comply with the earmarked conduit memo entry requirements. This caused a real traffic jam as we have needed to respond and amend several reports which had earlier been generated with inadequate software. The final versions arrived only recently, allowing us to complete some earlier responses and to finalize this response as well. We appreciate your patience.

If you should have any further questions about the enclosed, please don't hesitate to contact us at your earliest convenience. Thank you for your continued help and understanding.

Sincerely,

Vicki L. Day
