RE: ATLA PAC ID # C00024521

Dear Ed:

Please find the enclosed April 1997 FEC report for ATLA PAC. As we discussed during our conference call on May 6, 1997 and as I indicated in my letter on April 30, 1997 (copy attached), ATLA PAC experienced some difficulties with its new computer system during the month of March 1997. These problems resulted in accidental electronic transfers of funds. ATLA PAC's March report reflected an original inadvertent receipt of funds into the PAC account with a memo entry. Following your advice from the May 6th conference call, the April report reflects: (1) the inadvertent transfer of funds out of the PAC account; (2) the retrieval of the inadvertent funds back into the PAC account; and (3) the transfer of the original inadvertent receipt of funds out of the PAC account.

To report the electronic funds transfer that occurred in April 1997, ATLA PAC used the same format as its March 1997 report that you referred to approvingly during our May 6th conference call. All of the electronic funds transfers are listed as separate memo entries on the schedules accompanying the detailed summary page. Even though the reversal of the inadvertent disbursement is not a "contribution," it is listed on a Schedule A form for line 11(a)(ii) because this appears to be the most appropriate place to record this entry on the detailed summary page. Similarly, the inadvertent disbursement and reversal of the original inadvertent deposit are listed on a Schedule B form for line 29 because this appears to be the most appropriate place to record those entries.

In addition, I want to apologize for the delay in responding to your letters of April 23 and 25, 1997, highlighting select issues regarding previous ATLA PAC FEC reports, however I wanted to first and foremost attend to the issue of fixing the inadvertent transfers. I plan on submitting ATLA PAC's amendments within the next several days. As always, thank you for your patience and assistance.

Sincerely,

Heather A. Weaver
