Dear Mr Gibson:

This letter is in response to your correspondence date September 13, 2001 in regards to our committee exceeding contribution limits as reported on Schedule B as filed for the period 10/01/00 - 11/27/00.

Our reports were accurately filed and the proper limits adhered to as set forth in Act. 2 U.S.C. section 441a(a). I spoke with Mr. Nicholas T. Ebinger on August 27, 2001 concerning this matter. Mr Ebinger agreed, after further research by him, that we had not exceeded the limits. As we discussed, we were inaccurately grouped with the American Federation of Teachers, of which we are not directly affiliated. He said he would make the proper notations in his files and there was no further action required on my part.

I hope this written explanation satisfy your requirement and no other action necessary. If not, please let me know.

Thank you,
