1) As indicated in the Committee's response to the Commission's review of the May Monthly report, over the past several months the Committee has upgraded it's contributions processing procedures to a more secure and technologically efficient system. During the conversion, which included the use of a postal lockbox, there were a few glitches, of the sort frequently experienced during any type of systems change, caused by circumstances outside of the Committee's direct control. The Committee identified the intermittent problems and has worked diligently to correct the underlying processes. At this point in time, the Committee believes that the appropriate controls are in place to ensure that all earmarked contributions are forwarded within the permissible time period. 2) The share of postage and printing expenditures reported on Schedule B that are allocable to candidates are reported as in-kind contributions on Line 23, and the non-allocable share is reported as an operating expense on Line 21.
