January 30, 2006

Secretary of the Senate
Hart Senate Office Building, Ste. 232
Washington, DC 20510-7116

Dear Secretary:

Enclosed is the January 31, 2006 filing for Mfume for U.S. Senate. Additionally, I have enclosed a document supporting an issue that affects both this quarter's report and the report for July 15th. Please know that I will be filing a second amendment to the July 15th FEC filing from Mfume for U.S. Senate under separate cover.

The connection between these two reports is as follows: I adjusted the cash on hand for this filing period, because I had to delete two contributions from the July 15th report. In November, we were notified that funds from two credit card transactions—a contribution in the amount of $500.00 from Vickie Thomas and a contribution in the amount of $1,000.00 from Gail Smith-Howard—would be removed from our checking account because our software company and Verisign failed to process the funds due to a technical error, the funds were not processed in a timely manner. The credit card companies of these two individuals decided to charge the monies back to their accounts due to the lag in processing time.

Please also know that, in order to obtain missing employer and occupation information for donors over $200, as required by federal law, those donors whose phone numbers the campaign has on file received phone calls and voice messages requesting the information. Those who did not have phone numbers but did have emails were emailed with a clear request for the missing information. Furthermore, those who did not return the phone calls were sent letters requesting the information. A sample information request letter is attached.

Please feel free to call me at (410) 468-3338 to discuss any of these items. I thank you for your assistance in keeping Mfume for U.S. Senate in total compliance with all Federal Elections law.

Sincerely,

Kia Heath
