FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION MAIL RC

Aug 3 9 11 AM '99

Memo

To: Mary Beth deBeau, Federal Election Commission Reports Analyst

From: Larry E. Everhart, Treasurer

CC: Wisconsin Election Board

Date: July 30, 1999

Re: July 31, 1999 Mid-Year Report

Dear Ms. DeBeau,

This letter serves to reiterate our internal procedures regarding rules set out by the FEC. In January, we adopted a set of policies and procedures in response to FEC comments on a prior report. These policies and procedures were contained in a document dated 1/18/99 sent to you. These policies are on record with the FEC.

I would like to highlight that our procedure for capturing occupation and employer information for donors remains as outlined procedures Section 2. Iv. and 3.I. However, we now follow these procedures for all donors, not only those donating in aggregate of $200 or more.

There are people who have donated in excess of $200 that do not have employer information contained in this report. All of these donors have had their information requested on two occasions: at the point of requesting the money, and then with the thank you by sending a BRE and info card. As of a few weeks ago, we adopted another procedure where we actually type in when we sent out the 2nd request. You will see these new notations in the report for some names.

I hope this reconfirms and clarifies our policies as to the requirement of reporting occupation and employer information for certain donors.

Regards,

Larry E. Everhart
Treasurer, Ryan for Congress
