Thank you for your letter dated January 14, 2005, concerning the Committee's Amended August Monthly Report (7-/1/04-7/31/04), in which you requested that the Committee amend Schedule E by providing the state of the primary election for each independent expenditure supporting or opposing a presidential candidate. We have reviewed the reported expenditures in question. At the time we filed the reports, we had understood that because neither of the candidates supported or opposed by the expenditures had been officially nominated by their respective parties, we were required to report the expenditures as related to a primary election, when in fact they were not made in connectin with any state's presidential primary electin. Rather, they were made in connection with the presidential general election in 2004. We are herewith filing amended independent expenditure schedules (Schedule E) to reflect that these were general election expenditures. We regret the misunderstanding, but we note that the public was still timely informed of the payees, dates, amounts, and purposes of the expendutures as well as the names and offices of all but one of the candidates supported or opposed by the expenditures. Please contact us should you have any additional questins regarding this matter.
