Dear Mr. Baisden:

This letter is in regards to the RFAI letter regarding our October quarterly report which we received on 4-15-2015.

I have filed the amended October third quarter report with the corrected dates of disbursement for several independent expenditures including Campaign Marketing Strategies, D J's Market & Deli, Shoney's Corporate, and Staples, Inc. These errors were due to our bank's delay in processing the payments. Our bank statement showed that the payments were made at later dates, when the bank processed them.

The disbursement to Callfire on August 7 was made on that date for calls made on that Election day. Since it was not more than 24 hours before Election day when this expenditure was made, I did not include it in a 24 hour report, but of course it was reported on the October quarterly report. Should this have been handled differently?

The corrected October 2014 quarterly report will follow this note. This will conclude our amended filings in order to correct the errors brought forward in your letter of April 15. I believe I have addressed all of the points mentioned in the letter in these Miscellaneous Electronic Submission forms that I have filed with each amended report. Please let me know if you require further information, or if I have misinterpreted any FEC regulations.

Sincerely,

Beverly Cotter
Treasurer
