Dear Mr. Crooks:

I am the co-treasurer for the Committee to Draft Ralph Nader for President, and on behalf of the Committee, I hereby apply for administrative termination of the Committee.

The Committee has been effectively defunct for more than three years. We have received no contributions, nor have we incurred expenses, nor have we written any checks, in that period.

We have no money on hand, and we have no capacity to raise money at this point. We have three debts outstanding that we have no means of paying: Market Facts for $3,450, NYNEX for $1,271.51, and American Data for $106.00.

We submitted a Debt Settlement Plan on June 27, 1995, and I have responded promptly to Mr. Ahmad Coston when he sought amendments, which I furnished on August 31, September 18, September 25, October 20, and November 14, 1995.

At this point, it would seem to serve no purpose to keep the Committee open, and since the Committee meets the requirements for administrative termination, I hope you will grant it forthwith.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Matthew Rothschild
