This memo serves to address seven Congressional credit card contributions that were discovered in June, 2013. The contributions were made in May, 2012 , thru the campaign's website via Rally, our credit card processing company, after we thought the Rally account was closed. We did not know about these contributions and never requested a transfer of funds to the original campaign checking account, which has now been closed. Chris Jones, our FEC analyst, advised us to transfer the money from Rally to a campaign checking account, which we have opened temporarily to handle this trasaction. Immediately upon receipt of the funds, the full amount of the contributions will be returned to the donors with a letter of explanation. Edwin Peacock III will pay the credit card transaction fees from personal funds, so the Congressional campaign receives no benefits and incurs no costs associated with these contributions.
