

The American Nurses Assocation changed both banks and accounting systems in 2007. After a recent internal audit, it was found that contributions from an automated membership income file was not reported on our FEC filings. In the interest of full disclosure, the American Nurses Association will be amending our FEC files from February to November of 2007 to reflect these contributions.
