Dear Mr. Averett,

Thank you for talking with me about excess contribution problems pointed out in your recent letter to David P. Zynda, the MRBA PAC Treasurer.

I have been in contact with the two candidate committees involved and followed up these conversations with the enclosed letters.

I will let you know as soon as this matter is resolved.

Best regards,

John E. Osmer

Dear Vicki,

We have been advised by the Federal Election Commission that the $3000.00 contribution to your campaign on October 21, 1998, exceeded the contribution limit for our PAC. Since the MRBA PAC is not yet a qualified multi candidate committee, we are limited to a $1000.00 contribution per election.

I am sorry, and embarrassed, that this happened.

To correct this situation, there are some options - re-designating the excess amount to any outstanding debt from your 1998 campaigns, or applying it to an upcoming campaign. If this cannot be done, the extra funds must be returned to us.

Please call me so we can talk about resolving this matter.

Best regards,

John E. Osmer

Dear Rick,

We have been advised by the Federal Election Commission that the $5000.00 contribution to your campaign on October 12, 1998, exceeded the contribution limit for our PAC. Since the MRBA PAC is not yet a qualified multi candidate committee, we are limited to a $1000.00 contribution per election.

I am sorry, and embarrassed, that this happened.
